

Ron Coleman

The things I need to flourish are...

Empty spaces at the bar,
Travelling to places both near and far,
With a fast driver in the car,

I need people to see the real me,
Not destructive force of my dementing State,
To see both the forest and the single Tree,
That allows me both to Flourish and create...

And then I feel bold!